Palma, El terreno

These two townhouses are identical and has been recently built in the heart of El Terreno. Each townhouse consists of two living levels, a spacious basement and a roof terrace. As you enter on the ground level you will find a spacious double bedroom and a bedroom or office with a bathroom. When you walk to the first floor, you will enter the living room with tall windows and a modern open-styled kitchen with NEFF appliances and a unique BORA induction stove with integrated extractor. On the same floor you will find a spacious master bedroom with fitted wardrobes and an ensuite bathroom.

Furthermore, there is a spacious roof terrace with a luxurious jacuzzi, outdoor shower and views of the mountains with the Bellver Castle which invites you to enjoy the beautiful Mallorcan sun. The townhouses have underfloor heating, air conditioning, oak parquet flooring, a utility room and a garage space. Both townhouses are identical.
