Palma, Son Espanyolet

This magnificent, unimpeded view of the stately Bellver Castle and the lovely roofs of one of the city's most charming neighbourhoods is what makes this private second-floor apartment so special. This 100 m² built home provides a sophisticated and cosy haven in the centre of Palma, near the famous Palma Tennis Club. The apartment's two large bedrooms and two elegant bathrooms are ideal for your seclusion and comfort. The large living-dining space flows into a contemporary kitchen that boasts superior appliances and luxurious fixtures. There's also a handy washing facility at your disposal.

The balcony is a great place to unwind and take in the breathtaking views of the cityscape and the castle as dusk descends.
